Enigma Securities Limited (“Enigma”), by and through its undersigned counsel, files this objection (the “Objection”) to the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for an Order Granting Leave, Derivative Standing and Authority to Commence, Prosecute and Settle Claims on Behalf of the Debtor’s Estate [ECF No. 925] (the “Standing Motion”)¹ filed by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) of Cash Cloud Inc. (the “Debtor” or “Coin Cloud”). In support of this Objection, Enigma respectfully states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Committee observes, in one of this year’s great understatements, that the Debtor’s assets sold for “less than the value of the secured debt[.]” Standing Motion, ¶ 2. It would be just as accurate to say that they sold for barely more than the professional fees charged to the estate: after accounting for a downward purchase price adjustment due to the Debtor’s failure to maintain its equipment in good working order, the Debtor’s assets fetched approximately $5.28 million against a “projected $4,735,000 in forecasted professional fees owed” (to say nothing of an additional $5 million in projected administrative expense claims).² And the meter is still running.

2. The Standing Motion is the opening salvo in a campaign waged by the Committee and the Debtor (or, perhaps more accurately, their professionals) to fill that gap by any means necessary.³ Specifically, the Committee seeks derivative standing to challenge Enigma’s liens on a subset of its collateral, as well as to claw back adequate protection payments made to secured lenders during the case. Neither claim is colorable, and each fails on the merits.

3. As discussed herein, in perfecting its liens on the Debtor’s machines, Enigma

¹ Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Standing Motion or the Final DIP Order (as defined herein), as applicable.

² Declaration of Tanner James in Support of Memorandum of Law in Support of: (A) Final Approval of Disclosure Statement [ECF No. 529]; and (B) Confirmation of Debtor’s First Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization Dated August 1, 2023 [ECF No. 996] [ECF No. 1079], ¶ 14. And the true figure could be even higher. See Opposition to Approval of Stipulation Granting Derivative Standing to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors with Respect to Certain Actions [Docket No. 1029] at 3-4.

1 complied with the requirements of the Nevada Uniform Commercial Code (the “Nevada UCC”) to
 2 the letter. More pertinently, even if the Committee could identify a gap in Enigma’s collateral
 3 package, avoidance of Enigma’s liens would not result in a dime going to unsecured creditors.
 4 Instead, all it would accomplish would be to shift value away from Enigma, and into the pockets of 5 Genesis Global Holdco, LLC (“Genesis”), which has a blanket lien on the Debtor’s assets.

6 4. The Committee’s recharacterization claims fare no better. The Committee cannot 7 recharacterize adequate protection payments as pay-downs of Enigma’s secured claim unless it can
 8 show that such payments exceeded the amount by which Enigma’s collateral diminished in value
 9 throughout the case. That is a tall order, especially in light of the Debtor’s testimony at the outset
 10 of the case that Enigma’s collateral was worth at least $11 million, and yet only sold for a fraction
 11 of that; the apparent disappearance of hundreds of machines from Enigma’s collateral package; and 12 the Debtor’s inability to maintain its machines in good working order.

13 5. It is evident that the Committee’s claims lack merit, and their prosecution would do
 14 little but waste time and money. In a case defined by false starts, the Committee would lead the 15 estate towards yet another dead end. Rather than shake down the secured lenders that threw the 16 Debtor a lifeline at the height of its liquidity needs (and who are already deeply underwater on their 17 claims), the Debtor and the Committee should instead devote what limited estate resources remain
 18 towards monetizing the myriad of commercial tort and avoidance claims that have been identified
 19 against insiders, affiliates, and third parties. The Standing Motion should be denied.

20 BACKGROUND

21 6. On February 7, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for 22 relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District
 23 of Nevada (the “Court”).

24 A. Enigma’s Loan and Liens

25 7. Prior to the Petition Date, Enigma lent the Debtor $8,000,000 (the “Enigma Loan”)
 26 pursuant to that certain Secured Loan Facility Agreement, dated as of April 22, 2022, by and between 27 the Debtor and Enigma (hereinafter, the “Loan Agreement”). A copy of the Loan Agreement is

1 attached hereto as Exhibit A.⁴ As of the Petition Date, the Debtor owed Enigma not less than 2 $7,593,699 pursuant to the Loan Agreement.

3 8. To secure its obligations under the Loan Agreement, the Debtor granted Enigma
4 fully-secured, first priority liens (the “Enigma Liens”) in not less than 3,677 of its digital currency
5 machines (the “Enigma DCMs”), as well as the cash proceeds contained therein and generated
6 therefrom (along with the Enigma DCMs, the “Enigma Collateral”), pursuant to that certain Security
7 Agreement, dated as of April 22, 2022, by and between Enigma and the Debtor (hereinafter, the 8 “Security Agreement”). A copy of the Security Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit B. To 9 perfect the security interests granted under the Security Agreement, Enigma filed a UCC Financing
10 Statement (the “Financing Statement”) with the Office of the Secretary of State for the State of 11 Nevada on April 25, 2022. A copy of the Financing Statement is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

12 9. For the vast majority of the Enigma DCMs, the Financing Statement provides each
13 machine’s (a) serial number, (b) software identification number (“CCID”), (c) location identification
14 number (“LID”), and (d) street address where the machine is physically located. See generally
15 Financing Statement. For a subset of Enigma DCMs, and on information and belief, those machines
16 were not manufactured with serial numbers; for such DCMs, the Financing Statement provides some 17 combination of CCID, LID, and physical address. Id.

18 B. The Final DIP Order

19 10. On March 20, 2023, the Court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to obtain
20 $5,000,000 of post-petition financing (the “DIP”) on a final basis [ECF No. 315] (the “Final DIP 21 Order”).

22 11. The DIP was a “priming” loan secured by liens on the Debtor’s property that are 23 senior to those of the Debtor’s prepetition secured lenders, Genesis and Enigma. As adequate
24 protection for any diminution in the value of Enigma’s interest in the Enigma Collateral, the Final

v. City of L.A., 250 F.3d 668, 688 (9th Cir. 2001) (stating that the Court can take judicial notice of, among other things, DIP Order required the Debtor to provide various forms of adequate protection to Enigma, including (a) monthly adequate protection payments to Enigma in an amount equal to interest on the Enigma Loan calculated at 6.25%; (b) an allowed administrative expense claim accruing at a rate of 6.25% of the outstanding balance of the Enigma Loan; (c) granting Enigma the Enigma Adequate Protection Superpriority Claim to the extent of any Enigma Diminution Claim; and (d) reimbursement of fees and expenses incurred by Enigma up to a cap. Final DIP Order, ¶ 10. The DIP has since been discharged in full, and the DIP liens have been terminated.

12. During the chapter 11 case, the Debtor has made some, but not all, of the required Adequate Protection Payments; those it has paid were only remitted as a result of Enigma's persistence in seeking payment. See Enigma Securities Limited's Application for Allowance and Payment of Administrative Expense Claim Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 361, 362, 363, 364, 503, 507, and Bankruptcy Rules 3012 and 8002 [ECF No. 873] (the "Enigma Administrative Claim Application"), ¶ 7. Moreover, despite the requirements of the Final DIP Order, the Debtor has not made its monthly cash Adequate Protection Payments since June 2023. Id.

13. Pursuant to the Final DIP Order, the Debtor stipulated and agreed that Enigma had a valid, first priority lien over the 3,677 Enigma DCMs, and that those liens had been properly perfected under Nevada law and secured the $8 million Enigma Loan. See Final DIP Order, ¶ 4(b). The Debtor's stipulations bound the Debtor immediately (such that the Debtor forever waived any ability to challenge Enigma's liens and claims) and would become binding upon third parties upon the expiration of a "Challenge Deadline," before which the Committee or other party in interest was required to commence a challenge to the stipulations. See Final DIP Order, ¶ 17(b).

14. The Debtor also stipulated to the validity of the liens and claims asserted by Genesis, which held a first priority lien on substantially all of the Debtor's assets other than the Enigma Collateral, with respect to which Genesis held a second priority lien. See Final DIP Order, ¶ 4(a); Annex A to Proof of Claim of Genesis Global Holdco, LLC, Claim No. 121 (Jun. 14, 2023); Omnibus Declaration of Christopher Andrew McAlary in Support of Emergency First Day Motions [ECF No. 19], ¶ 26. The Debtor's stipulations with respect to the Genesis liens and claims were also subject

1 to the Challenge Deadline and, on information and belief, the Challenge Deadline has expired with
2 respect to Genesis.

3 C. The Committee's Appointment and the Standing Motion

4 15. On February 17, 2023, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee")
5 filed its Appointment of Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [ECF No. 131] (the "Notice of 6 Appointment"). On February 28, 2023, the U.S. Trustee amended the Notice of Appointment [ECF
7 No. 177].

8 16. After the Committee's appointment, the Challenge Deadline was originally fixed for 9 April 18, 2023. Thereafter, Enigma and the Committee agreed to extend the Challenge Deadline
10 from time to time, and did so solely with respect to certain claims identified in writing by the 11 Committee's counsel to Enigma's counsel on April 14, 2023. See [ECF Nos. 457, 581, and 796].
12 Ultimately the Challenge Deadline was extended with respect to such claims through and including 13 July 24, 2023.

14 17. On July 24, 2023, the Committee filed the Standing Motion. By the Standing Motion, 15 the Committee seeks derivative standing to pursue certain "Preserved Claims" on behalf of the 16 Debtor's estate; specifically, claims to avoid Enigma's liens on certain of the Enigma DCMs (the 17 "Lien Challenge Claims") and to recharacterize the Adequate Protection Payments made to Enigma
18 and Genesis during the chapter 11 case (the "Recharacterization Claims"). Standing Motion, ¶ 1.

19 18. The Committee argues that the Lien Challenge Claims are colorable because a 20 minority of the Enigma DCMs in the Financing Statement do not have serial numbers, and thus can 21 only be identified by one or more of the other numerous descriptors (e.g., CCID, LID, physical 22 address) potentially available to identify a given piece of collateral. Id., ¶¶ 28-29. As to the 23 Recharacterization Claims, the Committee speculates that Enigma may have received Adequate
24 Protection Payments (which currently total hundreds of thousands of dollars) in excess of the 25 diminution in value of the Enigma Collateral (which appears to have diminished by millions). Id.,
26 ¶ 32. Finally, the Committee asserts in conclusory fashion that the benefits of bringing the Preserved
27 Claims will probably outweigh the costs, even though such costs are never even loosely quantified
28

1 in the Standing Motion. Id., ¶ 36. Accordingly, the Committee requests derivative standing to bring
2 the Preserved Claims against Enigma. Id. at ¶ 19.

3 OBJECTION

4 19. To obtain derivative standing to pursue claims on behalf of a debtor's estate, a
5 creditors' committee must show by a preponderance of the evidence that pursuit of such claims
6 would be "necessary and beneficial" to the estate. See Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Official Comm. Of
7 Unsecured Creditors' Comm. Of Spaulding Composites Co. (In re Spaulding Composites Co.), 207
8 B.R. 899, 904 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1997); Grogan v. Garner, 498 U.S. 279, 286 (1991) (preponderance 9 of the evidence standard applies for civil actions between private litigants where "particularly 10 important individual interests or rights are [not] at stake" (citation omitted)). Whether litigation is 11 "necessary and beneficial" is determined on a case-by-case basis, with courts considering, among 12 other things, whether:

- 13 • The party seeking standing has demanded that the debtor pursue the claim(s);
- 14 • The debtor has unjustifiably refused to do so;
- 15 • The benefits of such litigation outweigh the likely costs; and
- 16 • The claims are "colorable."

17 See Unsecured Creditors' Committee of Debtor STN Enters., Inc. v. Noyes (In re STN Enters.), 779
18 F.2d 901, 905 (2d Cir. 1985); Can. Pac. Forest Prods. V. J.D. Irving, Ltd. (In re The Gibson Grp.,
19 Inc.), 66 F.3d 1436, 1446 (6th Cir. 1995); see also In re Catholic Bishop of N. Alaska, No. F0B-20 00110-DMD, 2009 WL 8412174, at *5 (Bankr. D. Alaska Sept. 11, 2009) (collecting cases and 21 noting Second and Sixth Circuit caselaw with approval). A court must "examine, on affidavit and 22 other submission, by evidentiary hearing or otherwise," whether proposed litigation "is likely to 23 benefit the reorganization estate." STN Enters., 779 F.2d at 905. Conversely, if successful litigation 24 would not increase distributions to unsecured creditors, standing generally should not be granted to 25 pursue such litigation. See Standing Motion, ¶ 22 (citing cases and noting that "the prerequisites for
26 derivative standing" include identifying a claim "that would affect distributions to unsecured
27 creditors....").

20. For the purposes of this Objection, Enigma does not dispute that the Debtor's stipulations in the Final DIP Order constitute a refusal to bring the Preserved Claims and that demand would be futile. However, the Committee has not demonstrated that the Preserved Claims are colorable or that the benefits to unsecured creditors would outweigh the likely costs. Accordingly, the Standing Motion should be denied.

A. Even If Successful, the Lien Challenge Claims Would Not Benefit the Estate

21. As a threshold matter, standing to pursue the Lien Challenge Claims should be denied for the simple reason that, even if such claims were ultimately successful (and for the reasons set forth herein in, they would not be), the estate would receive no benefit whatsoever. Instead, all the Committee could hope to achieve in prosecuting the Lien Challenge Claims would be to provide a windfall to Genesis.

22. Bankruptcy Code section 544 permits the trustee or other estate representative with requisite standing to, among other things, avoid any lien that is voidable by a hypothetical lien creditor under applicable non-bankruptcy law. 11 U.S.C. § 544(a). Section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code notes that any transfer avoided under section 544 is to be "preserved for the benefit of the estate[.]" 11 U.S.C. § 551. In practice, this means that the value of the avoided transfer flows to the estate with the same priority that existed prior to avoidance. See In re Van de Kamp's Dutch Bakeries, 908 F.2d 517, 519 (9th Cir. 1990) (citing In re Barry, 31 B.R. 683, 686 (S.D. Ohio 1983)). However, the preserved lien to which the estate succeeds remains subject to any state law defects and subordinate to other liens that were properly perfected prior to the Petition Date. See 5 COLLIER ON BANKR. ¶ 551.02, n.2 (16th ed. 2023) (collecting cases). The estate cannot acquire a superior interest in the underlying property than that of the holder of the avoided lien. Thus, to the extent there are property perfected liens on the subject property, avoidance "may be of no practical value to the [estate] if senior lienors remain with liens exceeding the value of the property." Tenn. Mach. Co. v. Appalachian Energy Indus., Inc. (In re Appalachian Energy Indus., Inc.), 25 B.R. 515, 517 (Bankr. M.D. Tenn. 1982); see also In re DeLancey, 94 B.R. 311, 313 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1988) (avoided lien is not enhanced by preservation under section 551).

 Las Vegas, Nevada 89134
 (702) 471-7432

23. As noted, certain of Genesis' claims are secured by liens on substantially all of the Debtors' assets, and these liens are junior to Enigma's liens on the Enigma Collateral. Pursuant to the Final DIP Order, the Debtor stipulated to the validity, priority, and perfection of the Genesis Liens, and on information and belief, the Challenge Deadline has expired with respect to such stipulations. Final DIP Order, ¶ 4(b). Accordingly, even if the Committee were successful in avoiding Enigma's liens on certain of the Enigma Collateral, the estate's interest in the Enigma Collateral would remain subordinate to the Genesis Liens, which by operation of the Challenge Deadline's passage are conclusively deemed to have been properly perfected. Because the proceeds from the sale of the Debtors' assets (including the Enigma Collateral) are substantially less than the secured claims of Enigma and Genesis, see Standing Motion, ¶ 2, any proceeds "freed up" by successful avoidance of the Enigma Liens would be completely exhausted in satisfaction of Genesis' claims. The Lien Challenge Claims would therefore provide "no practical value" to the Debtor's estate and would at best inure to the benefit of Genesis alone. Appalachian Energy, 25 B.R. at 517.

24. The Court should not endorse squandering limited estate assets on a lark that would only provide another secured creditor with a windfall (particularly given the apparent administrative insolvency of the estate).

B. Even if the Preserved Claims Could Benefit the Estate, the Committee Has Not Demonstrated That Such Benefit Would Outweigh the Costs

25. To obtain derivative standing, a party must establish that the benefits to the estate of pursuing the associated litigation outweigh the likely costs. See, e.g., Consol. Nev. Corp. v. Herbst (In re Consol. Nev. Corp.), BAP No. NV-17-1210-FLT_i, 2017 WL 6553394, at *7 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Dec. 21, 2017), aff'd, 778 Fed. Appx. 432 (9th Cir. 2019) (citing In re Yellowstone Mtn. Club, LLC, No. 08-61570-11, 2009 WL 982207, at *6 (Bankr. D. Mont. Jan. 16, 2009)). The party seeking standing has the burden of providing an affidavit or other evidence upon which the court can base a cost-benefit analysis. See STN Enters., 779 F.2d at 905. Although admittedly difficult to ascertain costs and benefits with precision ex ante, the moving party must provide, at a minimum, details of its proposed compensation structure and an estimate of the overall cost of the proposed challenge.

 2 of Am’s. Hobby Ctr. v. Hudson United Bank (In re Am’s. Hobby Ctr., Inc.), 223 B.R. 275, 284
 3 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (court compared potential $500,000 benefit to estate against estimated
 4 $50,000 in litigation costs given committee’s counsel’s hourly rate and remaining workload);
 5 Unsecured Creditors Comm. of Debtor, STN Enters., Inc. v. Noyes (In re STN Enters., Inc.), 73 B.R.
 6 470, 473 n. 4 (Bankr. D. Vt. 1987) (costs did not outweigh benefits, in part, because “fee arrangement
 7 [was] contingent and the Committee represented they [would] only seek reimbursement for their 8 costs . . . out of any recovery....”).

9 26. As discussed herein, none of the Preserved Claims are colorable and, with respect to 10 the Lien Challenge Claims in particular, there is no scenario under which a successful challenge
 11 would increase recoveries to unsecured creditors. Arithmetic dictates that the costs of litigation,
 12 even if just one dollar, will always exceed a benefit of zero. But even assuming arguendo that the 13 Preserved Claims are worth something (and Enigma maintains they are not), the Committee has not 14 provided any evidence regarding the likely costs of pursuing the Preserved Claims, including the 15 number of hours required to pursue them, the fee structure under which the Committee’s counsel
 16 would operate, or even a rough estimate of total “headline” cost. See Catholic Bishop, 2009 WL
 17 8412174, at *6-7. To the contrary, the Committee says nothing at all about the likely costs it would 18 incur in litigation, other than to speculate that the Preserved Challenges “do not appear” to “present 19 novel issues of law” and thus litigation “should not [be] unnecessarily protracted.”
 20 Standing Motion, ¶ 36.

21 27. The Standing Motion’s silence on costs is deafening in an administratively insolvent
 22 case. Because it provides no evidence upon which the Court can base its necessary cost-benefit
 23 analysis, the Standing Motion must be denied.

24 C. The Preserved Claims Are Not Colorable

25 28. Finally, the Committee had the burden of establishing that the Preserved Claims are 26 colorable, which many courts have likened to a “motion to dismiss” standard: that is, whether the 27 moving party has pled facts that, if accepted as true, would support a claim for which relief could be 28

1 granted. See Standing Motion, ¶ 25 (citing cases). Here, the Preserved Claims are not colorable
 2 under any standard. The Recharacterization Claims fail under the plain terms of the Final DIP Order,
 3 and case law applying Article 9 of the Nevada UCC makes it abundantly clear that Enigma properly
 4 perfected the Enigma Liens.

5 1. The Adequate Protection Payments Cannot Be Recharacterized

6 29. Under the Final DIP Order, the Committee retained the right to seek 7 recharacterization of Enigma’s Adequate Protection Payments solely “to the extent such amounts
 8 received exceed any diminution in value of the Enigma Collateral.” Final DIP Order, ¶ 10(g). The 9 Standing Motion does not allege any facts that, if accepted as true, would support a finding that the 10 amount of the Adequate Protection Payments exceeded the diminution in value.

11 30. On the other hand, Enigma has established that the Debtor valued the Enigma
 12 Collateral at more than $11 million as of the Petition Date. See Enigma Administrative Claim 13 Application, ¶ 4. By contrast, the sale of the Debtor’s digital currency machines, including the 14 Enigma Collateral, yielded only $3.78 million in proceeds in total. In addition, the Debtor stipulated
 15 that the Enigma Collateral consisted of not less than 3,677 machines as of the Petition Date. Yet
 16 according to the Debtor, only 2,368 of the machines sold constituted Enigma’s collateral. See
 17 Declaration of Tanner James in Support of Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Debtor to 18 Surcharge the Collateral of Genesis Global Holdco, LLC, Enigma Securities Limited, and AVT
 19 Nevada, L.P. [ECF No. 927], ¶ 6. Even accounting for the approximately 500 machines that were 20 abandoned to Enigma during the chapter 11 case,⁵ that still leaves more than 700 machines
 21 unaccounted for that have apparently disappeared from Enigma’s collateral package. In addition,
 22 Heller Capital (the purchaser of the Debtor’s DCMs at auction) exercised an option under its asset
 23 purchase agreement to reduce the purchase price by 10% (or $420,000) due to the Debtor’s failure
 24 to maintain the collateral in good working order—clear evidence that the value of the Enigma
 25 Collateral has diminished.

26 31. As a result, Enigma has a claim for the diminution in value of the Enigma Collateral that is likely in the millions of dollars (and is at a minimum equal to Enigma’s pro rata share of the $420,000 purchase price reduction), which eclipses the few hundred thousand dollars in Adequate Protection Payments that Enigma has received to date. Consequently, under the plain terms of the Final DIP Order, the Committee does not have the right to seek recharacterization of Enigma’s Adequate Protection Payments, and the Recharacterization Claims are not colorable.
 27

28 ⁵ See ECF Nos. 516, 517, 627-30.

32. In addition, the Security Agreement clearly and unequivocally grants Enigma liens on both the Enigma DCMs, as well as the “cash proceeds contained therein and generated therefrom.” Security Agreement, § 4 (emphasis added). Pursuant to the Nevada UCC, a “security interest in proceeds is a perfected security interest if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected.” NEV. REV. STAT. § 104.9315(3). As set forth below, Enigma’s lien on the DCMs pledged to secure its claims were properly perfected and, accordingly, so was Enigma’s interest in cash proceeds contained in or generated from such DCMs. Accordingly, to the extent any Adequate Protection Payments were made from cash generated from DCMs within Enigma’s collateral package, that is a separate and independent reason why those payments cannot be recharacterized. See, e.g., In re Kain, 86 B.R. 506, 515 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 1988) (“Because the [secured creditor] received payments only from the proceeds of its collateral, it did not receive any windfall to the detriment of other creditors[,]” and thus adequate protection payments would not be applied to reduce the secured portion of the claim).

2. Enigma’s Liens Are Properly Perfected in Accordance with the Nevada UCC

33. The Nevada UCC, which governs the perfection of the Enigma Liens,⁶ requires that a secured party file a UCC-1 financing statement to perfect an interest in equipment such as the DCMs. See NEV. REV. STAT. § 104.9310(1). The financing statement must provide a “description of the collateral” that “reasonably identifies what is described.” NEV. REV. STAT. §§ 104.9108(1), 104.9504.

34. The UCC does not set forth precisely what is required to “reasonably identify” collateral. See Ma v. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., 597 F.3d 84, 91 (2d Cir. 2010)

(interpreting an identical New York UCC provision). Generally, a financing statement does not need to be “so comprehensive that it enables an interested party to determine exactly what the specific collateral is[] from a reading of the financing agreement alone[.]” See Nolden v. Plant Reclamation (In re Amex-Protein Dev. Corp.), 504 F.2d 1056 (9th Cir. 1974) (interpreting an identical California UCC provision). Instead, a description reasonably identifies collateral “if it identifies the collateral by . . . any other method,” so long as “the identity of the collateral is objectively determinable.” NEV. REV. STAT. § 104.9108(2)(f) (emphasis added).

35. Some courts have held that a unique identification number is a descriptor that makes collateral objectively determinable and, by extension, reasonably identifies the collateral. Merrill Lynch, 597 F.3d at 91. Other courts have held that a “readily identifiable physical location” of collateral, by itself, reasonably identifies collateral so long as a debtor “operate[s]” at that location. Planned Furniture Promotions, Inc. v. Benjamin S. Youngblood, Inc., 374 F. Supp. 2d 1227, 1237 (M.D. Ga. 2005). However, the Committee’s own case law is crystal clear: the UCC “does not require the underlying documents to use serial numbers or the most exact and detailed descriptions[]” possible to identify collateral. Marine Midland Bank v. Breeden (In re The Bennett Funding Grp.), 255 B.R. 616, 636 (N.D.N.Y. 2000) (citing Goudea v. Arzt (In re Sarex Corp.), 509 F.2d 689, 691 (2d Cir. 1975)) (emphasis added); see Standing Motion, ¶ 30 (citing Bennett).

36. Enigma has more than met the requirements to reasonably identify collateral through the descriptions included in its Financing Statement. The Financing Statement includes all information about each of the Enigma DCMs that was available when drafting the Security Agreement and the Financing Statement. On information and belief, certain of the Debtor’s DCMs (including certain of the Enigma DCMs) were not manufactured with serial numbers; for those machines, the Financing Statement included some combination of CCID (an identifier associated with the DCM software), LID (an identifier associated with physical location), or physical address where the machine was located. Each of these alone—and certainly together in combination—“reasonably describe[d]” the collateral. See Planned Furniture, 374 F. Supp. 2d at 1237 (collateral can be identified by “readily identifiable physical location”); Merrill Lynch, 597 F.3d at 91 (unique

(702) 471-7432

1 identifier is sufficient).

2 37. The Committee’s reliance on Bank of California v. LMJ, Inc. (In re LMJ, Inc.) to
3 advocate a contrary result is unpersuasive. See 159 B.R. 926 (D. Nev. 1993). In that case, a court
4 held that a security interest was unperfected because the financing statement merely identified the 5 collateral as “personal property” located on the premises of a “Nightclub / Restaurant” at a particular
6 address. LMJ, 159 B.R. at 929. That court found that the description did not reasonably identify the 7 collateral because “personal property” encompassed “such a broad range of possible collateral” so
8 as not to be descriptive. Id. The LMJ court found that specifying that the collateral was located at 9 a “Nightclub / Restaurant” did nothing to narrow down the search because “the fact that [] property
10 is located in a nightclub/restaurant does not reasonably identify the collateral . . . For example,
11 consideration of the personal property located in . . . Hard Rock Cafe as compared to Hooters
12 demonstrates . . . that there is, very often, no personal property ‘typical’ to such an establishment.”
13 LMJ, 159 B.R. at 929. But Enigma did not identify its collateral generically as “personal property”
14 at various locations; instead, the Financing Statement specifically identified the collateral as “3,677
15 cryptocurrency ATMs” at various locations listed in the Financing Statement. Financing Statement
16 at 2. LMJ is, therefore, inapposite.

17 38. The Committee also attempts to distinguish Planned Furniture because, unlike the 18 debtor in that case, Coin Cloud supposedly “neither owns nor operates its business at the specified
19 location[]” and because, allegedly, “Kiosks were moved from or never existed at the locations
20 described.” Standing Motion, ¶ 29 at n. 2. But whether the Debtor owns the premises at which the 21 DCMs are located is a non sequitur that has no bearing on Article 9 perfection requirements (though,
22 to be clear, the Debtor certainly operated DCMs at those premises). The Committee has also failed
23 to allege that any specific Enigma DCMs were in fact moved, rendering its speculation irrelevant.

24 39. Finally, to accept the Committee’s arguments would be to require the impossible from 25 Enigma. As mentioned, when perfecting the Enigma Liens by filing the Financing Statement,
26 Enigma used all information available to it in identifying the Enigma Collateral. This included,
27 where available, CCIDs, unit types, serial numbers, LIDs, and physical locations for each of the 28

1 machines. See generally Financing Statement. The absence of any particular descriptor is not the
 2 result of Enigma’s carelessness, but rather because, on information and belief, such descriptor did
 3 not exist. Permitting the Committee to pursue the Lien Challenge Claims would punish Enigma for 4 something completely outside its control. In the Committee’s view, there are certain assets in which
 5 a debtor in Coin Cloud’s position could never grant a perfected security interest, for want of a
 6 sufficient descriptor. Instead, it would be forced to choose between granting a lien on all of its assets 7 or none of them, and nothing in between.

8 40. The Committee’s interpretation of the law would also run contrary to the basic 9 policies underlying the Uniform Commercial Code. Financing statements are intended to place third
 10 parties on “inquiry notice” of a prior lien. See Jonathan C. Lipson, Secrets and Liens: The End of 11 Notice in Commercial Finance Law, 21 EMORY BANKR. DEVS. J. 421, 447 (2005). It is “only a 12 simple record providing a limited amount of information[,]” and “indicates merely that a person may 13 have a security interest in the collateral indicated. Further inquiry . . . will be required to disclose
 14 the complete state of affairs.” NEV. REV. STAT. § 104.9502, cmt. 2 (emphasis added). The 15 information provided in the Financing Statement is more than sufficient for these purposes: any
 16 subsequent party interested in potentially providing financing collateralized by the Debtor’s DCMs
 17 could compare the physical address, serial number, CCID, and LID for such DCMs with those listed
 18 on the Financing Statement. To the extent there were any “hits,” such party could “further inquir[e]”
 19 of the Debtor to ascertain “the complete state of affairs.” NEV. REV. STAT. § 104.9502, cmt. 2.

20 41. For these reasons, the Preserved Claims are not colorable. To avoid wasting an 21 administratively insolvent estate’s precious resources, the Committee should not be granted standing 22 to prosecute them.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

24 42. In accordance with the Court’s scheduling order [ECF No. 1056], Enigma reserves
 25 the right to supplement this Objection, including with information obtained from the Committee or 26 other parties in discovery.

Loan Agreement

SECURED LOAN FACILITY AGREEMENT

This secured loan facility agreement (this "Agreement"), dated as of April 22, 2022 (the "Effective Date") is entered into between Cash Cloud Inc., dba Coin Cloud, a Nevada corporation with offices located at 10190 Covington Cross Drive, Las Vegas, NV 89144 (the "Borrower") and Enigma Securities Limited, a limited company organized under the laws of England and Wales with offices at 6th Floor, 30 Pantan Street, London SW1Y 4AJ United Kingdom (the "Lender").

WHEREAS, the Lender and the Borrower have an ongoing business relationship which they wish to strengthen;

WHEREAS, the Borrower has agreed to allow the Lender to take a security interest in certain cryptocurrency automatic teller machines and the cash proceeds contained therein and generated therefrom (the "Collateral") as an inducement for entering into the Agreement and the parties have entered into a security agreement dated April 22, 2022 in this respect (the "Security Agreement");

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Loan, Maturity and Prepayment, Additional Tranches, Interest Rate, Two Week Calculation Periods and Interest Payments

(a) Loan. The Lender will loan the Borrower up to $8,000,000 (the "Loan") upon execution of the Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, Borrower may take less than the full value of the Loan on the execution date and take further advances up to an aggregate $8 million without execution of Appendix 1 as set out in Section 1(c). The amount of any principal outstanding from time is the "Borrowed Amount".

(b) Maturity Date and Prepayment. The Loan will have a maturity date of October 11, 2022 (the "Maturity Date"). The Borrower may at its election prepay all or any portion of the Loan.

(c) Additional Tranches. The Borrower may request to borrow additional cash under this Agreement. The Lender, at its sole discretion, may agree to make such loan of cash, in which case the additional tranche shall comprise part of the Loan and shall be documented by execution of an amendment in the form of Appendix 1 to this Agreement. Where the Lender requests that additional Collateral be posted with respect to an additional tranche of cash, the parties shall execute an amendment to the Security Agreement in the form of Appendix 1 to the Security Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, a decision by the Lender not to loan an additional tranche pursuant to a request by the Borrower under this Section 1(c) shall not amount to a breach of this Agreement.

(d) Interest Rate. The Loan will bear interest at a rate of 9.5% per annum. Interest payments will be made in accordance with Section 1(e).

(e) Two Week Calculation Periods and Interest Payment. Every fourteen days beginning on Friday, April 22, 2022, the Lender will produce a report of trading volume under the Facility as defined in Section 2(a) (such report, the “Two Week Report”). Interest will be due within five Business Days of production of a Two Week Report.

(f) Business Day. For the purposes of this Agreement, a “Business Day” means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or U.S. federal holiday on which banks in the State of New York are open to conduct business.

2. Trading Facility.

(a) Facility. So long the Borrower is not in default under Section 5 of this Agreement, the Lender shall make available to the Borrower a facility for the purchase of cryptocurrency (the “Facility”) pursuant to the terms of this Section 2. When the Borrower requests a purchase of cryptocurrency (each such request, a “Purchase”) under the Facility, the Borrower shall send cash to fund such Purchase within seven Business Days (as defined herein) of such request, and the Lender shall transmit the requested cryptocurrency promptly after receipt of such funds. Alternately, the Borrower may choose to pre-fund Purchases by transferring cash to the Lender in advance of requesting a Purchase under the Facility. The Lender will charge the Borrower 10 basis points for Purchases, subject to Section 2(b). The parties anticipate that trading volumes under the Facility will be at least equal to the Borrowed Amount. For the avoidance of doubt, Borrower may use and/or apply any monies from the Loan to directly settle any Purchase rather than waiting for Lender to distribute monies from the Loan to Borrower and for Borrower to send such monies back to Lender for a Purchase.

(b) Fees for Low Volumes. Where any Two Week Report shows that the trading volume for the Facility is less than the Borrowed Amount, the fee payable by the Borrower to the Lender for trades under the Facility over the subsequent two week period shall be increased pro rata with the shortfall in trading volume. For example, if the Borrowed Amount is $8 million and the Borrower trades $4 million during a two-week period, then during the subsequent two-week period the Borrower will pay the Lender 15 basis points for trades under the Facility.

3. Termination.

(a) Termination by Borrower. The Borrower may terminate the Loan and the Facility at any time. To the extent that the Loan remains outstanding upon termination by Borrower, the Borrower shall repay in full the Loan on or before the termination date.

(b) Interest on Late Repayment of Loan. Without prejudice to Lender’s rights under Section 5, interest shall accrue as a penalty upon the Loan at a rate of twenty-five (25) percent per annum to the extent that it remains outstanding after a termination by Lender in accordance with the terms of Section 5.

4. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Borrower represents and warrants to the Lender as follows:

(i) Existence. The Borrower is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the state of its organization. The Borrower has the requisite power and authority to own, lease, and operate its property, and to carry on its business.

(ii) Compliance with Law. The Borrower is in compliance with all laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, and regulations applicable to or binding on the Borrower, its property, and business.

(iii) Power and Authority. The Borrower has the requisite power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(iv) Authorization; Execution and Delivery. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Borrower and the performance of its obligations hereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action in accordance with applicable law. The Borrower has duly executed and delivered this Agreement.

(v) Security Agreement. The representations and warranties in Section 8 of the Security Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference and repeated in this Agreement by Borrower for the benefit of the Lender.

5. Events of Default. The occurrence and continuance of any of the following shall constitute an “Event of Default” hereunder:

(a) Failure to Pay. The Borrower fails to pay any interest payment or principal amount of the Loan or trading commissions with respect to the Facility when due.

(b) Breach of Representations and Warranties. Any representation or warranty made by the Borrower to the Lender herein contains an untrue or misleading statement of a material as of the date made.

(c) Bankruptcy; Insolvency.

(i) The Borrower institutes a voluntary case seeking relief under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or other relief for debtors.

(ii) An involuntary case is commenced seeking the liquidation or reorganization of the Borrower under any law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, and such case is not dismissed or vacated within sixty (60) days of its filing.

(iii) The Borrower makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

(iv) The Borrower is unable, or admits in writing its inability, to pay its debts as they become due.

(v) A case is commenced against the Borrower or its assets seeking attachment, execution, or similar process against all or a substantial part of its assets, and such case is not dismissed or vacated within sixty (60) days of its filing. For the avoidance of doubt, Borrower and Lender agree that the action styled Cash Cloud Inc. v. Flores, Case No A-19-807370-B pending in Clark County, Nevada is not a case against the Borrower or its assets seeking attachment, execution, or similar process against all or a substantial part of its assets.

(d) Failure to Give Notice. The Borrower fails to give the notice of an Event of Default specified in Section 5.

6. Notice and Remedies upon Event of Default.

(a) Notice. As soon as possible after it becomes aware that an Event of Default has occurred, and in any event within two (2) Business Days, the Borrower shall notify the Lender in writing of the nature and extent of such Event of Default and the action, if any, it has taken or proposes to take with respect to such Event of Default. Upon giving such Notice of an Event of Default to Lender and subject to acceleration under Section 6(c), Borrower shall have five (5) business days to cure the Default (“Cure Period”).

(b) Remedies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default and after the expiration of any Cure Period (if applicable), the Lender may elect to take action (each such action, a “Remedy”) as described in Sections 6(b)(i)-(iii). The choice of Remedy shall be at the sole discretion of the Lender, and for the avoidance of doubt the Lender may choose to enforce multiple Remedies or no Remedy at its sole election. Election of the Lender not to enforce a Remedy upon a particular Event of Default shall be without prejudice to its rights under this Section 6(b) upon occurrence of a subsequent Event of Default.

(i) Acceleration. The Lender may ask for any part or all of the outstanding principal of the Loan to be repaid at any date at the Lender’s discretion.

(ii) Enforcement of Security Interests. The Lender may enforce any part of or all of its rights with respect to Collateral under the Security Agreement.

(iii) Enforcement of Guaranty. The Lender may seek to enforce any part of or all of its rights under the Guaranty.

(c) Acceleration without Notice. Without prejudice to the remedies set out in Section 6(b), if an Event of Default described in Sections 5(c)(i), (iii), or (iv) shall occur, the outstanding principal amount of the Loan or Advance shall become immediately due and payable without notice, declaration, or other act on the part of the Lender and without any Cure Period.

7. Agreement to Terms and Conditions. The Borrower acknowledges that it has agreed to the Lender's Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"), as updated from time to time in accordance with the Terms. To the extent of an inconsistency between this Agreement and the Terms, this Agreement shall prevail.

8. Notices. All notices and other communications relating to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given upon the first to occur of (x) deposit with the United States Postal Service or Royal Mail (as the case may be) or overnight courier service, properly addressed and postage prepaid; (y) transmittal by facsimile or e-mail properly addressed (with written acknowledgment from the intended recipient such as "return receipt requested" function, return e-mail, or other written acknowledgment); or (z) actual receipt by an employee or agent of the other party. Notices hereunder shall be sent to the following addresses, or to such other address as such party shall specify in writing:

9. Governing Law. This Agreement and any claim, controversy, dispute, or cause of action (whether in contract, tort, or otherwise) based on, arising out of, or relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

10. Disputes.

(a) Submission to Jurisdiction.

(i) The Borrower and the Lender irrevocably and unconditionally (A) agree that any action, suit, or proceeding arising from or relating to this Agreement may be brought in the courts of the State of Nevada sitting in Clark County, and, if jurisdictionally appropriate, in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, and (B) submit to the jurisdiction of such courts in any such action, suit, or proceeding. Final judgment in any such action, suit, or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

(ii) Nothing in this Section 10(a) shall affect the right of the Lender to bring any action, suit, or proceeding relating to this Agreement against the Borrower or its properties in the courts of any other jurisdiction to the extent that such court has personal jurisdiction over Borrower.

(iii) Nothing in this Section 10(a) shall affect the right of the Lender to serve process upon the Borrower in any manner authorized by the laws of any such jurisdiction.

(b) Venue. The Borrower irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, (i) any objection that they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue in any action, suit, or proceeding relating to this Agreement in any court referred to in Section 10(a), and (ii) the defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action, suit, or proceeding in any such court.

(c) Waiver of Jury Trial. THE BORROWER AND THE LENDER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT THEY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, OR ANY OTHER THEORY.

11. Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void).

12. Amendments and Waivers. No term of this Agreement may be waived, modified, or amended, except by an instrument in writing signed by the Borrower and the Lender. Any waiver of the terms hereof shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose given.

13. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure by the Lender to exercise and no delay in exercising any right, remedy, or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, or power hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, or power. The rights, remedies, and powers herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights, remedies, or powers provided by law.

14. Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or render such term or provision invalid or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction.

15. Counterparts. This Agreement and any amendments, waivers, consents, or supplements hereto may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or in electronic ("pdf" or "tif") format shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this agreement as of April 22, 2022.

Security Agreement

This SECURITY AGREEMENT (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the provisions hereof, this "Agreement"), dated as of April 22, 2022 (the "Effective Date"), is made Cash Cloud Inc. dba Coin Cloud, a Nevada corporation whose address is 10190 Covington Cross Drive, Las Vegas, NV 89144 (the "Debtor") in favor of Enigma Securities London Ltd, a limited company organised under the laws of England and Wales, whose address is at 6th Floor, 30 Panton Street, London SW1Y 4AJ, United Kingdom (the "Secured Party").

Under the terms of this Agreement, the Debtor desires to grant to the Secured Party a security interest in the Collateral, as defined herein, to secure any and all obligations of the Secured Loan Facility Agreement, as defined herein.

NOW THEREFORE, the Debtor, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, all terms in this Agreement shall have the same meanings ascribed to them as defined in Chapter 38 of the New York Consolidated Laws, referred to as the New York Uniform Commercial Code, as amended (the "UCC").
2. GRANT OF SECURITY INTEREST. For value received, and to secure the Obligations (as defined below in Section 3 of this Agreement), the Debtor grants to the Secured Party a security interest in the property described below in Section 4 of this Agreement.
3. SECURED OBLIGATIONS. This Agreement secures the payment and performance of obligations under that Secured Loan Facility Agreement dated April 22, 2022 by the Debtor in the amount of $8,000,000 (the "Secured Loan Facility Agreement"): (a) the disbursement, administration, and collection of any and all funds in connection with the Secured Loan Facility Agreement; (b) the protection, maintenance, and enforcement of the security interest in this Agreement; (c) any and all other obligations of the Debtor for any agreement relating to the Secured Loan Facility Agreement; (d) any and all modifications, amendments, renewals, or other changes to this Agreement and the Secured Loan Facility Agreement (the "Obligations"); (e) provided that should the parties to the Agreement wish to secure payment of additional Tranches (as defined in the Secured Loan Facility Agreement) under this Agreement, they shall execute an amendment to this Agreement in the form of Appendix 1 hereto, and that in the absence such executed amendment, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3, this Agreement will only secure payment of the initial $8,000,000.
4. COLLATERAL AND SUBSTITUTION. This Agreement creates a security interest in the cryptocurrency automated teller machines and the cash proceeds contained therein and generated therefrom (the "Collateral") now owned by the Debtor and listed on Schedule 1. To the extent that this Agreement is amended by execution of Appendix 1 hereto, any additional collateral added to such Amendment will also comprise "Collateral" for the purposes of this Agreement. The Debtor will provide bi-monthly reports to the Secured Party showing the activity in the cryptocurrency automated teller machines.
